ABOUT ARCHITRONICA

Straightforward. Quick. Built properly.

Architronica is a design and build company based in North London. We design, plan and build extensions, full refurbishments, loft conversions and new homes for homeowners and small developers.

Our own team carries out the work, so one company is responsible for the whole project. We're straightforward with people, we get projects finished quickly, and we build to a high standard at a fair price.

WHAT SETS US APART

DESIGN & BUILD

IN-HOUSE

We employ the people who build your project. That keeps quality consistent and the programme moving.

EXTENSIONS & KITCHENS

Open-plan living

Kitchen extensions with roof lights, steel-framed glazing and herringbone floors, and handleless kitchens with stone islands.

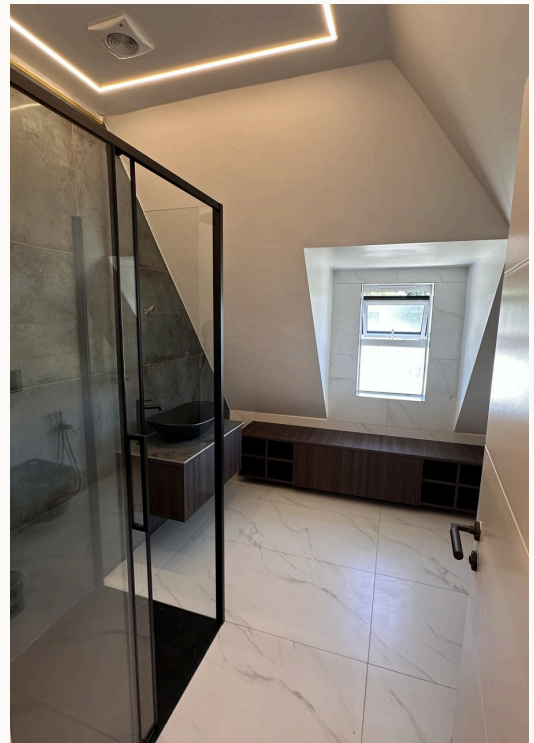

01

A new floor, finished

Full-width dormer conversion with a new rear roof, and a loft shower room under the eaves with a roof light.

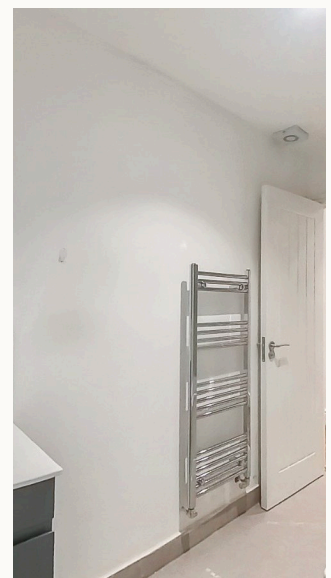

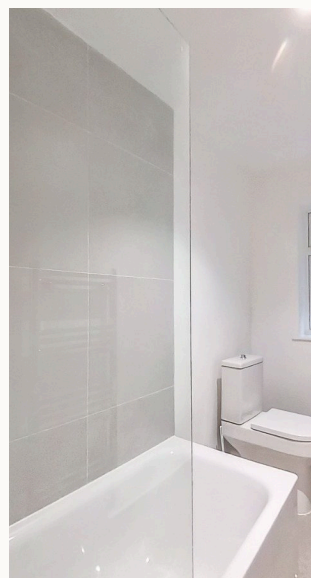

02

Bathrooms & shower rooms

Large-format tiling, wall-hung sanitaryware, recessed shelving with lighting and floating vanities.

03

Built properly, stage by stage

New homes from groundworks up, and extensions at structure stage. This is the part most people never see: steelwork, roof structure and brickwork done right before a single finish goes on.
